OFFICE OF

the A.R.P. Officer,

Bangalore City.

Date 28th November 1942.

The Chief Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

Through: The Inspector General of Police in Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

TIFFIN CHARGES ETC., DURING A.R.P. PRACTICES.

I have the honour to state that a local A.R.P. Practice was held on the morning of 7-8-1942 commencing from 8 A.M. to 11 A.M. and the Combined P.A.D. Practice on 8/9th August 1942, from 10 P.M. on the 8th night till 8 A.M., of 9-8-1942. On the morning of 7-8-4 all the essential services viz. First Aiders, Doctors, Rescue Party, Drivers, Cleaners, Office Staff, Operators and menials were on duty from the very early hours of the morning and therefore, they were provided with light tiffin and coffee. A sum of Rs.12-9-0 is due to the Cubbon Park Restaurant in this connection.

As regards the Combined Practices held on the night of 8-8-42 the practices lasted for nearly 15 hours and the personnel of the essential services referred to had to be kept on duty throughout the night of 8-8-1942 commencing from 8 P.M.

Sanction was accorded by Government in their order No.864/W dated 5-8-1942 to provide one meal on the night of 8-8-1942, a cup o Tea in the mid-night and a cup of coffee on the early morning of 9-8-1942 to the First-aiders etc. But as information was received that the practice would commence after 10 P.M., all the personnel of the essential services were directed to report for duty at 9 P.M. on the night of 8-8-1942 after taking their meals and no meals were arranged. Instead, light tiffin was supplied, once at about 1 A.M. on 9-8-42 and again on the morning of 9-8-1942 after the termination of the practice. The slight deviation from the Government Order

Order referred to above in the matter of arranging lunch etc., to the A.R.P. personnel was found necessary, as the duration of the Combined Practice was changed by the Military authorities at the last minute to which the organisation had to adjust.

A sum of Rs.51-3-0 was incurred to provide the lunch. Supply of Tea by the Tea Canteen to the A.R.P. personnel on the night of 8-8-1942, was also arranged at the A.R.P. Depot. As the equipment of the Indian Tea Market Expansion Board was not ready, 5 maunds of fuel was got supplied by the Cubbon Park Restaurant. A sum of Rs.1-4-0 was therefore spent.

Thus a sum of Rs.65/- in all is due to the Cubbon Park Restaurant towards supplies and I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to pay this amount out of the contingencies.
